Warning!

A little fly on mischief bent found an open door and in he went. There were no screens to bar his way and little fly was happy and gay. Dinner was being prepared by the cook; the fly flew over and took a look, and said as he gave his head a jerk: "Right here's where I get in my work. With microbes I am loaded down from the filthiest garbage can in town."

So while the cook was humming tunes, the fly waded through a dish of prunes; he danced a jig on the soup tureen and greased his jaws on the butterine; he raced all over the custard pie, then said as he slowly winked his eye: "Dinner time is drawing near and I'd better chase myself from here; I feel in my bones that trouble's brewin', and in about three minutes there'll be some-thing 'doin'." Of all this the family ate and I'll proceed to tell you of each one's fate. First father was taken ill and died, then mother passed over the Great Divide; then little Johnny was called up higher and is now a member of the angel choir; then little Nell and sister Sue were taken sick and they died too. The whole family is now in the sweet bye-and-bye, all because of the visit of one little fly. The
